The following is an outline of the Part A Non-Insurance Pre-Departure Cancellation Fee Waiver (referred to as "Part A Waiver"), Insurance Benefits and non-insurance assistance services that make up the Travel Protection Plan.

Part A Waiver provided by Collette Travel Service, Inc.: The Part A Waiver provided by Collette, is not an insurance benefit and is not underwritten by United States Fire Insurance Company. Payment of a per person Travel Protection Plan fee guarantees a full refund of all payments (including deposit), except the Travel Protection Plan fee itself, made to Collette and the Abound by Marriott Vacations™ exchange program for travel arrangements in case of cancellation of your travel plans for any reason prior to 61 days of departure. If you cancel between 60 days and 1 day from departure you will receive a travel certificate from Collette equal to all the monies paid to Collette (less the cost of the plan itself) plus all of the Club points redeemed to Abound by Marriott Vacations. This certificate will be redeemable only to Collette (your Club points will not be redeposited into your account and will not be redeemable for anything except another Collette tour). The certificate must be redeemed within one year of its issuance. The Part A Waiver only reimburses airline tickets you have purchased from Collette.

Exception: If you originally purchased nonrefundable airline tickets, the Part A Waiver does not provide a refund for the airline tickets, taxes or fees, in the event of a cancellation. This air ticket may be covered under Part B, if you cancel your trip for covered reasons (see Part B for more details).

The Part A Waiver portion of Collette's Travel Protection Plan protects you from penalties in the event you have a need to cancel your entire inclusive tour package up to the day prior to departure. The Part A Waiver portion of the Travel Protection Plan does not indemnify you from penalties if you choose to cancel partial tour components or air. If you choose to partially cancel your tour, you will be responsible for a revision fee as well as any penalties that are incurred at the time of the cancellation.

For Residents of New York Only: The Part A Waiver can be purchased separately without the purchase of Part B. Contact Collette at 1-800-832-4656 in order to purchase the Part A Waiver separately.

Collette's Part A Waiver portion of the Travel Protection Plan does not reimburse any single supplement charges which arise from an individual's traveling companion electing to cancel for any reason prior to departure. In this case, the single supplement will be deducted from the refund of the person who cancels. (However, the Part B Benefits referenced below include a single supplement benefit for certain covered reasons, as detailed in Part B.) Division of this charge between the two passengers involved is solely their responsibility. If insufficient funds are deducted from the canceling client, the traveling client will be charged the remaining portion of the single supplement.

Your payment of the Travel Protection Plan (if chosen) must be received by Collette with your deposit. The fee is nonrefundable, nontransferable and valid for each applicant only.

Collette can assume no responsibility for and cannot be held liable for any wrongful, negligent or unauthorized acts or omissions of any travel agent or travel agency other than that of Collette Travel Service, Inc. itself, and its own employees.

Level ②

You like a balanced approach to travel. Walking two to three miles over the course of a day is no problem. You can partake in a two-hour leisurely walking tour, covering up to two miles (with included breaks). You can handle a variety of terrains, from cobblestone streets to moderate hills with relative ease and without assistance. You can climb two flights of stairs with ease. There may be 1 to 2 days on this tour when walking tours can cover three to four miles over uneven terrain. You can handle altitudes up to 6,000 feet.

Level ③

You're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

Level ④

You're ready to seize the day, whatever it may bring. You lead an active life at home (walking, biking, and half or full day hikes are things you may enjoy) and 10,000 steps a day is normal. You can handle longer walking tours (more than 3 hours covering three-plus miles at a steady clip) and activities that involve traversing uneven terrain, steep slopes, standing for periods of time, and varying altitudes and temperatures. You don't mind being on the go with some early starts, late-nights, and full days. You can handle altitudes of 9,000 feet or higher with little to no issue. This level is not appropriate for travelers who use wheelchairs, walkers, and other mobility assistance devices.
