Dear Traveler,

Travel is all about connection. And as travelers ourselves, we get how important moments of connection are. It's what inspires every small group journey we create.

These tours aren't about checklists. They're about sharing stories with locals, lingering longer at the table, and exploring beyond the guidebook.

Smaller groups are the key to connection — to the people, culture, and unexpected moments that turn into lifelong memories. I recently felt that deeper connection firsthand, joining our small group journeys through Finland, Türkiye, and Tanzania.

This year, we're going even further. More journeys. More meaningful experiences. All thoughtfully designed by travelers, for travelers.

So, if you're ready to chase your curiosity, forge deeper connections, and travel a little off script, I think Explorations will make you feel right at home.

Warm Regards,

Jaclyn Leibl-Cote

President & Chief Executive Officer of Collette

THE EXPLORATIONS TRAVELER

- ▶ You're savvy, confident, and culturally curious.
- ▶ You want meaningful connections to local people.
- ▶ You're a lifelong learner, who isn't afraid to challenge the status quo.
- ▶ You're looking for every day to be new and different.
- ▶ You want free time to explore your way, paired with an expertly planned deep dive into a destination.
- ▶ You want specially-curated accommodations and unique dining experiences.

Explorations tours are all about getting closer to culture.

Designed just for small groups, these tours help travelers dive deeper.

Access places that larger groups can't reach. Connect with locals.

Build camaraderie with like-minded travel companions.

Forge connections with local experts.

A llama with reddish-brown wool is perched on a high, grey stone wall. The wall is built with large, irregular stones. In the background, there are green mountains under a blue sky with white clouds. The scene is bright and clear.

THE EXPLORATIONS DIFFERENCE

▶ Travel That's About More

Is it the people you meet that make travel memorable? Or discovering cultures — and new sides of yourself? With Explorations, you don't have to choose. With an average of just 19 travelers, every moment is designed for meaningful connections and authentic encounters, leaving space for you to explore the world your way.

▶ More Time Where It Matters

Longer stays mean deeper discovery. That's why we craft Explorations differently; with more 2- and 3-night stays, you'll spend less time on the road and more time truly immersing yourself in each destination.

▶ A Regional Approach

Every Explorations itinerary is crafted by experts who know the region best — locals. From iconic landmarks to lesser-known gems, you'll uncover stories and places that go beyond the guidebook.

▶ Learning Through Discovery

Small groups open doors. Step into a family's home for a meal and conversation. Hunt for truffles in the Tuscan countryside. Sleep under the stars in a Sahara tented camp. These aren't just activities; they're the moments that make travel unforgettable.

BY TRAVELERS

Explorations tours are created by travelers who understand the power of traveling small. We know that sometimes the best way to experience a place is with a little more space — more room for conversations, more freedom to linger, and more chances to notice the details that bring a destination to life.

Our Tour Designers and Tour Managers are travelers first, and they build each journey with the insight that comes from experience.

They've walked these paths, shared tables with locals, and found the moments where authentic connection thrives. With fewer guests in each group, it's easier to step into daily life — to join a family for a meal, to explore side streets, to pause when curiosity sparks.

Because when trips are designed by travelers who love to look closer, you discover a world you didn't even know you were looking for.

Sam K.
TOUR DESIGNER,
THE AMERICAS

FOR TRAVELERS

You don't just want to go places — you want to truly experience them. And our small group journeys are designed with travelers like you in mind.

Each itinerary is crafted for those who seek to connect, understand, and fully immerse themselves in a destination, not just check it off a list. With fewer fellow travelers, it's easier to share conversations, enjoy authentic moments, and feel part of the places you visit. You'll find yourself lingering longer in local markets, asking questions that spark real dialogue, and stepping into experiences that feel personal, not packaged.

Our travelers come from all walks of life, but they're united by one thing: a deep, shared curiosity about the world. They're the kind of people who notice the scent of spices drifting from a kitchen, who ask about the story behind a handmade textile, who find joy in the unexpected. And when you travel with people like that, every moment becomes richer — not just because of where you are, but because of who you're with.

ACTIVITY LEVELS

1 2 3 4 LEVEL 1 LIGHT & LEISURELY

You're a leisurely traveler. You typically take it easy and discover the energy of a new place by people-watching or soaking in the atmosphere at a local café. You can climb at least one flight of stairs, board a coach, and walk unassisted at a relaxed pace for up to 60 minutes without difficulty. You can easily handle altitudes up to 5,000 feet.

1 2 3 4 LEVEL 2 MODERATE

You like a balanced approach to travel. Walking two to three miles over the course of a day is no problem. You can partake in a two-hour leisurely walking tour, covering up to two miles (with included breaks). You can handle a variety of terrains, from cobblestone streets to moderate hills with relative ease and without assistance. You can climb two flights of stairs with ease. There may be 1 to 2 days on this tour when walking tours can cover three to four miles over uneven terrain. You can handle altitudes up to 6,000 feet.

Tour Activity Levels help to set expectations on tour.

See the levels below and look for them throughout the itinerary pages.

1 2 3 4 LEVEL 3 ACTIVE

You're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

1 2 3 4 LEVEL 4 VERY ACTIVE

You're ready to seize the day, whatever it may bring. You lead an active life at home (walking, biking, and half or full day hikes are things you may enjoy) and 10,000 steps a day is normal. You can handle longer walking tours (more than 3 hours covering three-plus miles at a steady clip) and activities that involve traversing uneven terrain, steep slopes, standing for periods of time, and varying altitudes and temperatures. You don't mind being on the go with some early starts, late nights, and full days. You can handle altitudes of 9,000 feet or higher with little to no issue. This level is not appropriate for travelers who use wheelchairs, walkers, and other mobility assistance devices.

The following is an outline of the Part A Non-Insurance Pre-Departure Cancellation Fee Waiver (referred to as "Part A Waiver"), Insurance Benefits and non-insurance assistance services that make up the Travel Protection Plan.

Part A Waiver provided by Collette Travel Service, Inc.: The Part A Waiver provided by Collette, is not an insurance benefit and is not underwritten by United States Fire Insurance Company. Payment of a per person Travel Protection Plan fee guarantees a full refund of all payments (including deposit), except the Travel Protection Plan fee itself, made to Collette and the Abound by Marriott Vacations™ exchange program for travel arrangements in case of cancellation of your travel plans for any reason prior to 61 days of departure. If you cancel between 60 days and 1 day from departure you will receive a travel certificate from Collette equal to all the monies paid to Collette (less the cost of the plan itself) plus all of the Club points redeemed to Abound by Marriott Vacations. This certificate will be redeemable only to Collette (your Club points will not be redeposited into your account and will not be redeemable for anything except another Collette tour). The certificate must be redeemed within one year of its issuance. The Part A Waiver only reimburses airline tickets you have purchased from Collette.

Exception: If you originally purchased nonrefundable airline tickets, the Part A Waiver does not provide a refund for the airline tickets, taxes or fees, in the event of a cancellation. This air ticket may be covered under Part B, if you cancel your trip for covered reasons (see Part B for more details).

The Part A Waiver portion of Collette's Travel Protection Plan protects you from penalties in the event you have a need to cancel your entire inclusive tour package up to the day prior to departure. The Part A Waiver portion of the Travel Protection Plan does not indemnify you from penalties if you choose to cancel partial tour components or air. If you choose to partially cancel your tour, you will be responsible for a revision fee as well as any penalties that are incurred at the time of the cancellation.

For Residents of New York Only: The Part A Waiver can be purchased separately without the purchase of Part B. Contact Collette at 1-800-832-4656 in order to purchase the Part A Waiver separately.

Collette's Part A Waiver portion of the Travel Protection Plan does not reimburse any single supplement charges which arise from an individual's traveling companion electing to cancel for any reason prior to departure. In this case, the single supplement will be deducted from the refund of the person who cancels. (However, the Part B Benefits referenced below include a single supplement benefit for certain covered reasons, as detailed in Part B.) Division of this charge between the two passengers involved is solely their responsibility. If insufficient funds are deducted from the canceling client, the traveling client will be charged the remaining portion of the single supplement.

Your payment of the Travel Protection Plan (if chosen) must be received by Collette with your deposit. The Part A Waiver fee is nonrefundable, nontransferable and valid for each applicant only.

Collette can assume no responsibility for and cannot be held liable for any wrongful, negligent or unauthorized acts or omissions of any travel agent or travel agency other than that of Collette Travel Service, Inc. itself, and its own employees.

Where to Present Part A Claims

To request a refund under the Part A Waiver portion of the Travel Protection Plan, please call Collette and send any unused airline tickets to:

TRAVELERS NEEDING SPECIAL ASSISTANCE

Guests must advise Collette, at the time of booking, of any physical, medical, or other special needs that require an accommodation or special assistance. If and when necessary, Collette will make reasonable modifications to its policies, practices, and procedures unless doing so will fundamentally alter the nature of the tour or services.* Such participants, however, should be aware that the Americans with Disabilities Act is inapplicable outside of the United States and facilities outside the United States for disabled individuals are limited. It is strongly recommended that persons requiring assistance be accompanied by a companion who is capable of and totally responsible for providing the assistance. None of Collette, personnel, suppliers, or its other guests, may physically lift or assist other guests into transportation vehicles. If a traveler thinks he or she might need assistance during a trip, he or she should call Collette to determine what assistance might reasonably be given. Collette cannot provide special individual assistance to tour members with special needs for walking, dining, or other routine activities and motorized scooters are not permitted. Collette may exclude an individual from participating in a tour or an activity if the individual's participation poses a threat to the health or safety of the individual or others or causes an unacceptable disruption to the tour. This decision to exclude an individual, made by Collette in its sole discretion, will be based on an individualized assessment using reasonable judgment that relies on current medical evidence or on the best available objective evidence to determine the nature, duration and severity of the risk, the probability that potential injury will occur, and whether reasonable modifications of policies, practices, or procedures will mitigate the risk or will cause an unacceptable disruption of the tour. No refunds will be given if the decision is made to exclude a guest. In purchasing your tour, you attest that you are physically fit to participate on it. If you have concerns, please request additional details about your trip from your travel agent or Collette.

*To request a wheelchair accessible room on a cruise, the traveler or person sharing the room must have a recognized disability that alters a major life function and requires the use of a mobility device and the use of the accessible features provided in the wheelchair accessible stateroom.

It is recommended for your own self interest and protection that you have adequate insurance to cover these eventualities. There are limitations by coach and air carrier as to the number and size of bags which can be carried onboard and in bulk storage. Be sure to ask your travel professional about such restrictions before departing for your tour.

Checked Baggage Charges:

Some airlines may impose additional charges if you choose to check any baggage. SEAT ROTATION

Seats are rotated onboard the coach for all Collette tours under the direction of the tour manager. So that we do not show partiality among passengers, exceptions cannot be made.
