This is Small Group Travel, Reinvented

This is your time to head off the well-known path and appreciate all the extraordinary moments held in the everyday. It’s time to wander, to wonder, and to awaken your soul.

spark
YOUR SENSE OF WANDER
When you travel, you open yourself up to new experiences. That’s part of what makes exploring the world so special — doing and seeing things you never have before. We put that at the heart of Explorations experiences when we built them.

We want to get travelers into the small local spots away from the crowds. We want to show you how locals live. That’s why, when creating Explorations, we made sure that we kept the groups small and the experiences authentic. Experiences you couldn’t get if you were traveling on your own.

Come with us, step off the well-beaten path, and explore.

As part of the Collette family, we share 5 activity levels across more than 160 tours. On Explorations, you’ll find our tours scale a bit more active to allow for the most immersive experience possible.

LEVEL 1
You’re a leisurely traveler. You like to discover the energy of a new place, but typically take it easy. You can handle at least one flight of stairs, board a coach, and walk for 15-30 minutes at a time with little difficulty.

LEVEL 2
You like a balanced approach to travel. You feel confident walking at least 30-45 minutes at a time over a variety of terrains – from cobblestone streets to easy straightaways to a couple hills or flights of stairs. You’re comfortable walking a few city blocks at a time, but need some time to unwind and relax.

Small Group Travel is About Traveling in a More Authentic Way
You’ll share the road, a few meals, and a variety of special moments with a small, tight-knit group averaging about 15 people. You won’t be one of the crowd with Explorations, you’ll be an integral part of a cultural expedition. Every Explorations traveler is unique, but you all share a similar agenda — to authentically travel and connect to the world.

ACTIVITY LEVELS
- You are an individual and value your independence.
- You’re pretty active. You enjoy walking, hiking and the occasional bike ride.
- You have an adventurous spirit. You find that your best stories are from when you said “yes” to something new.
- You discover new destinations best by getting to know the people who call it home.
- You like the thrill of planning travel, but aren’t a fan of logistics. You want to focus on making the trip memorable, not getting wrapped up in the details.

You have an adventurous spirit. You find that your best stories are from when you said “yes” to something new.
LEVEL 3
You enjoy a blend of longer days, shorter days, and leisure time. Plan for some walking tours, walking slightly longer distances, up stairs, or on uneven walking surfaces.

LEVEL 4
You’re comfortable with a mix of longer days and some evening or early-morning activities. You can expect longer walking tours, traversing uneven terrain, climbing stairs, and periods of standing.

LEVEL 5
You’re in good health and able to handle activities like: extensive walking tours, transfers over uneven or dusty terrain, high altitudes, early-morning departures, late-night activities, or extreme temperatures. This tour is not appropriate for individuals who use walkers or wheelchairs.
WHAT YOU’LL DO
unique experiences

It’s often said that experience is the best teacher and we couldn’t agree more. We’ve built Explorations experiences entirely around this philosophy, and that’s why the number of travelers is always less than 19, or less than 25 on some tours. These smaller group sizes allow for possibilities you can’t get with a bigger group.

Collette’s tour design team built experiences that will educate us as travelers about cultures, traditions, and the human spirit. Some experiences are active and even a little adventurous, some are designed to reveal the heart of a culture, and some may even have the power to change your life.

Hard to replicate, and impossible to forget, these experiences will help shape your understanding of a destination, and shape your vision of the world.

This was one of my favorite destinations.

We visited many interesting sites, but probably my favorite thing about the tour was that I felt like I learned a lot about the culture and the people as well as the country. We visited three homes and I loved the experience of seeing what their homes look like and what their daily life is truly like.

EXPLORATIONS TRAVELER ON COLORS OF MOROCCO

WALK ATOP A SLUMBERING VOLCANO

From the top of the long-dormant caldera’s rim, you feel as though you can see to the ends of the earth. As far as your eyes can make out, it’s glimmering blue water and lush green nature, swept into peaks and valleys by the awesome power of mother nature a millenia ago. From atop this vantage point, there’s no question as to why the Azores are called the “jewels of Portugal.” From your vantage point, everything shimmers in the golden sun.

The Azores: Jewels of Portugal, pp. 26-27
STROLL THE HALLS OF THE TSARS

In St. Petersburg, iconic architecture seems to be around every corner. A favorite stop is to gaze on the lavish robin's egg blue exterior of the lavish Catherine Palace, the former summer escape for Russian aristocracy. But, there's no need for us to simply peer through the golden gates of this place. Step through the archways for an exclusive tour of this magnificent palace.

» The Baltics Revealed, pp. 30-31

WITNESSING THE GRANDEUR OF Jaipur

Jaipur, the “Pink City,” comes alive as the sun sets over the elegant stone architecture. The pinkish hue of the stone, the color the city gets its eponymous name for, captures the reds and oranges of the sunlight, setting the buildings aglow. There is a regal grandeur to this place that can be found in the craftsmanship of the palaces, temples, and buildings here. You get to explore these streets from your hotel, located in the heart of the city.

» Mysteries of India, pp. 58-59
WHO WILL JOIN YOU

Your travels are often made more memorable by the people you meet and the connections you make along the way. Explorations does more than show you a new place. It connects you to new cultures and shows you a fresh perspective of the world. This approach to travel wouldn’t be possible without a little help from the people who will share the adventure with you.
We really didn’t know exactly what to expect. Well, you certainly exceeded any expectations we had. You created a truly ‘once in a lifetime’ experience for us. From the lodging to the daily game drives, we saw incredible glimpses of life in Kenya...both human and animal. We would highly recommend this safari to anyone considering this type of experience.

Local cuisine is so much more than taste and texture. It's about the experience and ambiance served up alongside a mouthwatering meal. Explorations seeks to delight the entire palate, creating an unforgettable and hard-to-replicate epicurean adventure. From home-hosted meals to hands-on cooking classes, intimate local restaurants to street food tours, you will savor the many local flavors your destination has to offer.

HUNTING FOR TRUFFLES IN FRANCE

Delight in the “thrill of the hunt” on an epicurean adventure through the forests of Southern France. Led by a local chef and his keen-sensed dogs, this culinary experience on Journey Through Southern France will have you searching for coveted black truffles where they naturally grow.

EXPLORATIONS TRAVELER ON TUSCAN & UMBRIAN COUNTRYSIDE

We loved the smaller group focus on small hillside towns!
Highlights include the visit to the olive oil farm, Carletti, where the intimate setting was as marvelous as was the olive oil. The cooking class in Vallo di Nera was a lot of fun and laughs.

THE BOUNTY OF MAINE

Set out to the rocky coasts of Maine and taste the bounty of the ocean. Feast on freshly caught Maine lobster before setting out in a Downeast-style lobster boat to see traps hauled from the cold Atlantic waves.

WHERE YOU’LL STAY

authentic surroundings

Explorations includes a variety of unique places to rest up and rejuvenate during your travels. Each hotel (4-star and above) is carefully chosen to ensure that your exploration never stops, even while you’re relaxing after a full day, or lingering over a morning coffee. Whether it’s the history, the view, the location, or the amenities, your hotels will capture the spirit of your destination.

MOROCCAN RIAD

A riad — a large traditional home or palace built around a central courtyard — is perfect for soaking in the cultural ambiance of Morocco. Steeped in history and heritage, staying in a riad is a must to connect with Morocco’s storied past.

CASTLES & CHATEAUS

You’ll truly live like a royal on some of our European Explorations. Walk the halls and grounds where royals once reigned and take time to appreciate the history that surrounds you.

LODGES

At a lodge, the environment is key. Lodges are often built so that you never feel detached from the stunning natural surroundings you’ve found yourself in, and the safari lodge in South Africa is no exception. With some luck, you’ll be able to see the animals of the savannah right outside your window.

All the hotels, the tours, the people on our tour and the people that we met, to the bus driver Luigi and the local guides, it was a win-win tour. No wonder Collette is celebrating 100 years in the travel business.”

GO AHEAD, SAVE THE DATE

Many of our Explorations departures are guaranteed, so once you book, it’s time to start getting excited for what’s to come.
All Explorations tours are now carbon neutral.

How? First off, we started by measuring the amount of carbon we emitted on each Explorations tour. From there, we offset that same amount of carbon by investing in different environmentally friendly projects.

What does it mean to be “carbon neutral,” exactly?

Every time you take a flight, eat at a restaurant, drive a car, or use your laptop, you’re using energy from fossil fuels, which emit carbon dioxide. This carbon dioxide makes its way into the atmosphere, polluting the air and contributing to global climate change. To counter this release of carbon dioxide into the atmosphere, we invest money in projects that lessen the amount of carbon dioxide in the air, like wind farms and reforestation efforts.

We’re taking action now, to benefit the future of the planet.

By partnering with a company that helps track and measure our carbon dioxide output as a company, we are offsetting our carbon emissions. When we add all of those travel-related activities up, the carbon footprint we leave behind as travelers can be substantial. That’s why we’re doing something about it.

HOW YOU CAN REDUCE YOUR CARBON FOOTPRINT EVERY DAY, AT HOME OR WHILE TRAVELING:

1. DITCH SINGLE USE PRODUCTS
   Use reusable water bottles and straws at home or on the road.

2. TURN THE LIGHTS OFF
   When not in use, turn unnecessary lights off and use LED bulbs – they’re 80% more efficient than traditional lighting.

3. PRINT LESS, WASTE LESS
   50% of waste produced by business is comprised of paper. Send documents electronically if you can.

4. ALWAYS RECYCLE
   Don’t contribute to your local landfill – recycle plastic and glass bottles, aluminum cans and paper products.

5. LOVE THY FARMER & EAT LOCAL
   It’s estimated that 13% of U.S. greenhouse gas emissions are caused by the production and transportation of food. Buying local significantly reduces the transportation of food products, which reduces the carbon footprint of your meal.
THIS IS PATAGONIA.

The only sounds you hear are the wild winds across the steppe. The only sights you see are jagged mountain peaks and still, silver lakes. You are in the heart of a rugged wilderness carved by eons of slow-moving ice — you can feel the timelessness of the landscape. The natural beauty before you is the same that nomadic tribes looked upon thousands of years ago.

This upcoming Explorations experience to Patagonia will take you through this stark and stunning region that both Chile and Argentina share. Venture across lakes set like jewels in the Andes Mountains, and witness sights like the Perito Moreno Glacier. There, massive shards of ice break free from the glacier with a sound like rolling thunder, plunging into the waters below.

The Lavaux region is quite possibly the best-known area for Swiss Wine, and was even declared a UNESCO World Heritage site. To get an expert opinion on Swiss wine and the entire winemaking process, we talked to Aurélia Joly, a Lavaux-region winegrower.

WHAT MAKES SWITZERLAND’S WINE CULTURE SO UNIQUE?

“Because we are a very little country,” says Aurélia. With only 15,000 hectares of space, the winegrowers have to be smart about what kind of grapes they grow. “The vineyards are very little,” she explained, so they don’t grow the volume of wine necessary to start exporting it — only 1-2% of all the wines produced are exported.

HOW DID YOU COME TO OWN A WINERY AND GROW YOUR OWN GRAPES?

“[My husband] Jacques was born into a winegrower family in Lavaux,” Aurélia explained to us. This is the story for so many vineyards, as the traditional craft gets passed down through the generations. “We wanted to create our own little society.”

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE SWISS DISH TO PAIR WITH WINE?

Aurélia suggests Swiss cheese fondue, of course. Make sure you have plenty of roasted potatoes for dipping, and pair with a crisp Chasselas white wine. Not only is this meal incredibly traditional for Switzerland, it’s incredibly delicious.

WHAT IS SOMETHING EVERYONE SHOULD KNOW ABOUT SWISS WINE?

“We work with our hands, and not with big machines, in the vineyards,” Aurélia told us. The winegrowers and vintners of Switzerland are a tight-knit society of craftsmen and artisans, that always stress quality over quantity. You’ll be able to tell as soon as you take your first sip.

MEET YOUR Neighbors

Wildlife Across the Globe

We share our world with a staggering array of animals, but what do we know about how they live? Seeing a lioness take care of her cub out in the savannah can teach us that mothers are mothers, no matter what they look like. Seeing the brilliant colors of a macaw in the jungle boughs can show us that nature is living art. We live with these creatures all around us. It’s time we got to know them.

Our Wildlife Promise: We believe in the well-being of all the animals we encounter on tour. That’s why we exclusively work with vendors and guides who value wildlife as much as we do.

THE DUBAI YOU KNOW
You’ve seen it depicted in movies – an opulent, hyper-modern city set like a gleaming beacon in the desert. Famous for a record-breaking skyscraper and cutting-edge architecture, the Dubai skyline feels like a city pulled straight from science fiction. Luxury shopping is a favorite pastime here, and each shopping plaza reflects that by being bigger, more elaborate, and more elegant than the next. Rooftop terrace bars, world-class restaurants, and fashionable beach clubs can be found everywhere. Dubai was designed to be a desert oasis, and you can feel it with every step.

THE DUBAI YOU DON’T
Away from the gleaming glass of this modern-leaning city is a different world. Rolling dunes stretch out towards the horizon, rippled like water by the warm winds of the desert. Out here, you won’t find luxury malls — you’ll find Bedouin camps. Instead of restaurants, you’ll find savory meats roasted over open flames. Instead of high-end sports cars, you’ll find rugged 4x4 vehicles and even camels. Share a meal with locals, listen to rhythmic Berber drums, and even watch a traditional belly-dancing show. You’ll feel like you’re a thousand miles from the paved roads and skyscrapers of the city.

ADD A FEW DAYS IN DUBAI TO YOUR TOUR. SEE OPPOSITE PAGE FOR MORE DETAILS

Go looking for luxury shopping, high-end restaurants, and modern architecture in Dubai, and you’ll find that and more. But look beyond the city limits, and you’ll discover another world.

Ancient Atmosphere

Deep in the jungles of northwestern Cambodia lies an ancient city that had been abandoned for 700 years. Intricate towers rise above the treetops, spiraling into stone spires. Block walls, twisted by heavy tree roots, lean drunkenly. Ancient stone faces, carved into columns, stare down at the visitors with eyes that have seen a hundred generations pass. This is Angkor Wat, the City of Temples, and you are walking on sacred ground.
Four hundred acres of ruins and temples sprawl out through the jungle, making Angkor Wat one of the largest holy sites in the world. At its center is the largest structure, Angkor Wat proper, set beside a calm lake in a wide-open clearing. A stone bridge leads travelers across the waters and inside its walls. It’s no wonder that this place evokes so much pride in Cambodia — you can feel a serene power in the air.

HISTORIC GROUNDS

King Suryavarman II ordered the construction of this sacred site as a Hindu place of worship, sometime in the 12th century. It was a massive undertaking, and the king underestimated how long construction would take. He died without seeing the City of Temples completed, and without his grand vision, construction halted.

In the 1800s, famous French explorer Henri Mouhot revealed this incredible temple complex to a “western” audience. In his famous travel journals, he wrote, “One of these temples, a rival to that of Solomon, and erected by some ancient Michelangelo, might take an honorable place beside our most beautiful buildings.” This pushed the French government to pour resources into preserving this mythical place.

LEGENDARY STORIES

There is a tale of Angkor Wat, that tells of King Suryavarman II starting his construction with a prayer to the gods. When the king awoke the next day, the temple had been built in the night by the gods themselves. This legend must have come hundreds of years after the construction, when the harsh labor of hundreds of workers had long been forgotten. Angkor Wat started as a holy site for Hindus, but over the decades transformed into a holy site for Buddhists as well. Buddhist pilgrims began to journey to the ancient site in the 17th century, claiming it was thought to be the mystical Jetavana garden of Buddha, where he taught his most important lessons to his students, and created Buddhism as a religion and a philosophy.

Frequently Asked Questions

Accommodations

What is the difference between a twin room and a double room? In certain countries, hotel rooms tend to be smaller than U.S. standard accommodations. A double room is designed to accommodate two people, but may not have two separate beds. A twin bedded room has two separate beds of any size, and is the type most commonly utilized.

What size is a triple room? A triple room is the same size as a twin bedded room and beds will accommodate three people, but we cannot guarantee that there will be three separate beds. If there are only two beds, a rollaway bed may be requested but cannot be guaranteed due to size of room and fire codes. Please inquire at time of reservation.

Can my children travel on tour? Children over the age of 5 may travel on a Collette tour accompanied by an adult. Child land rates are valid for ages 5-12, sharing a room with two full-paying adults.

Are single and triple rooms always available? On many tours, triple and single accommodations are limited and are available on a first come, first served basis. Be advised that single rooms are often smaller.

When can I check into my hotel? Normal check-in time is late afternoon in most locations. Due to early arrival times into some cities, rooms may not always be available for immediate check-in.

Air

Can Collette book our airline reservations? Collette is happy to assist you in accommodating your flight needs. Due to tour scheduling and limited availability, you are strongly encouraged to take advantage of Collette’s air packages. We are not responsible for air arrangements you have made on your own. On occasion, it is necessary to change tour dates. In this case, we can only protect air reservations booked through Collette.

Are all single rooms that have two beds (twin beds)? No, but some may be larger than single rooms with one bed. A twin bedded room has two separate beds of any size, and is the type most commonly utilized.

So, while the cost of an optional activity may change from the time you book your tour, once payment is received in full, your preselected options are guaranteed by Collette at their original price. Tour Pacing

How can I be best prepared for the pacing and physical requirements on a Collette tour? Tour pacing varies by itinerary, and each destination’s sightseeing and activities are unique. Pacing is subject to personal interpretation. At Collette, we do include the best a destination has to offer, enhancing your overall tour experience. For overnight pacing of a tour, please refer to the “Accommodations” section on each tour page and on the tour map. These describe the number of nights you will stay in each hotel during your tour. The day-by-day descriptions will provide additional details about the number of activities included in each day.

The Tour Activity Level Ranking is featured on each tour itinerary. The definition of each activity level is listed here. If you have additional questions regarding a specific tour, please inquire at time of reservation. For your comfort, we recommend packing comfortable walking shoes so you can fully enjoy every aspect of your tour.

Level 1: At a very leisurely pace, this tour involves minimal physical activity, such as climbing some stairs, boarding a motorcoach, and walking from the hotel reception area to hotel rooms and dining areas.

Level 2: This tour requires average physical activity. You should be in good health, able to climb stairs and walk reasonable distances, possibly over uneven ground and cobblestoned streets.

Level 3: This tour includes moderate physical activity. The itinerary blends some longer days with shorter days and more leisure time. Walking tours, as well as walking slightly longer distances, up stairs or on uneven walking surfaces should be expected.

Level 4: To truly experience the program and destination, you need to be able to participate in physical activities such as longer walking tours, walking over uneven terrain, climbing stairs and periods of standing. Some of the touring days may be longer, with select included activities occurring later in the evening.

Level 5: This tour is very active, requiring participants to be physically fit to fully enjoy all the experiences. This itinerary has more strenuous activities which may include such things as: extensive walking tours, transfers over uneven and dusty terrain, high altitudes, early morning departures, late night activities, or extreme temperatures. All conditions do not apply to all days, so please read the itinerary carefully and speak to one of our travel counselors to determine if this tour is right for you. We recommend this program to individuals who are physically fit. Unfortunately, this tour is not appropriate for individuals who use either walkers or wheelchairs. If this trip is not ideally suited for you, our travel counselors can help determine the perfect trip for you.

Airfare
For your convenience, we offer airfare for purchase with all tour packages. If you purchase an air-inclusive program, your airfare will be quoted inclusive of all fuel, taxes and fees. Your rates are subject to change until paid in full. Seats are limited and may not be available on every flight or departure date.

Instant Purchase Nonrefundable Airfare includes roundtrip airport/hotel transfers (excluding pre- or post-days and extensions). Instant Purchase nonrefundable airfare requires full payment by the time of booking. If you purchase the Travel Protection Plan, the Instant Purchase nonrefundable airfare may be covered, if you cancel your trip for a covered reason (see Part B for more details). Tickets will be issued immediately and once issued are nonrefundable, and may only be changed for a fee up to $300 plus any difference in airfare in travel in the following 12 months; specific fees and policies may vary by airline. These tickets include an administration fee and roundtrip airport-to-hotel transfers, of which both hold no airline reissue value. Once issued, there can be no fluctuation in price due to an increase in government taxes or in airline fuel surcharges. Therefore, any such fees or airport-to-hotel transfers are not refundable under any circumstances.

Aircraft Cabin Disinsection Disclaimer
Some countries may require aircraft cabin insecticide treatment for inbound foreign flights. Information about aircraft disinsection requirements and a list of countries requiring such disinsection are available online at http://www.dot.gov/office-policy/aviation-policy/aircraft-disinsection-requirements.

Travelers Needing Special Assistance
You must report any disability requiring special attention to Collette at the time the reservation is made.* Collette will make reasonable efforts to accommodate the special needs of tour participants. Such participants, however, should be aware that the Americans with Disabilities Act is inapplicable outside of the United States and facilities outside the United States for disabled individuals are limited. It is strongly recommended that persons requiring assistance be accompanied by a companion who is capable of and totally responsible for providing the assistance. Neither Collette nor its personnel, nor its suppliers, may physically lift or assist clients into transportation vehicles. If a traveler thinks he or she might need assistance during a trip, he or she should call Collette to determine what assistance might reasonably be given. Collette cannot provide special individual assistance to tour members with special needs for walking, dining or other routine activities.

*To request a wheelchair accessible room on a cruise, the traveler or person sharing the room must have a recognized disability that alters a major life function and requires the use of a mobility device and the use of the accessible features provided in the wheelchair accessible stateroom.

Holiday and Museum Closures
Museum visits and personal shopping time may be disrupted due to unforeseen circumstances or many religious, state and local holidays observed throughout the world.

Motorcoach Washrooms
Most motorcoaches used on our tours are equipped with washrooms except safari vehicles, exotic locations, and some of our Explorations tours. These are typically for emergency use, as we make plenty of comfort stops, allowing you the opportunity to use public restrooms and/or stretch your legs.

Seat Rotation
Seats are rotated onboard the coach for all Collette tours under the direction of the tour manager. So that we do not show partially among passengers, exceptions cannot be made.

Maps and Photos
Maps shown on tour pages are current at the time of printing and may not reflect actual tour routing should the tour change. Photos shown on tour pages are reflective of the area(s) visited, but may not be included in the actual tour itinerary and the conditions you experience may be different than depicted in the photograph(s).
Baggage Disclaimer

Although every effort is made to handle passengers’ luggage as carefully as possible, Collette is not responsible for any loss, damage, or expense of or to luggage due to breakage, theft or wear and tear through hotel and group carrier handling. It is recommended for your own self-interest and protection that you have adequate insurance to cover these eventualities. Check with your sales agent for low-cost insurance to cover these risks.

There are limitations by coach and air carrier as to the number and size of bags which can be carried onboard and in bulk storage. Be sure to ask your travel professional about such restrictions before departing for your tour.

Checked Baggage Charges:

Some airlines may impose additional charges if you choose to check any baggage. Please contact your airline or refer to its website for detailed information regarding your airline’s checked baggage policies. Please be advised there is a $25 USD/CAD charge (per piece) for checked baggage on most transborder flights between U.S. & Canada. This is a fee levied by the airlines, not Collette, and may be subject to change.

Explanation of Responsibilities and Tour Conditions for Collette

Each client is responsible for proper documentation and inoculations that may be required and/or recommended to participate on tour. Please contact your local travel clinic or personal physician for specific details on the destinations you are traveling to and from. If you decide to make a reservation, you acknowledge and agree that you are physically well enough to travel and understand that medical facilities may not be similar to what you are accustomed to at home. You must bring enough medication with you for the trip. Any person reserving or purchasing any Collette product published in this brochure accepts the condition that Collette reserves itself the exclusive right to change or cancel itineraries, hotels, and other tour components whenever it is deemed necessary, including for tours designated as “guaranteed departures.” If this occurs, every effort will be made to offer alternate dates and/or programs.

Published times on itineraries are as accurate as possible but subject to change due to traffic, weather, mechanical and any other conditions beyond Collette’s control that prevent Collette from operating as scheduled. Collette expressly disclaims any liability for any damages that may be incurred for any changes, cancellations or delays on any itinerary on any Collette tour.

All rates on foreign tours are subject to fluctuations of currency and may be changed when necessary without advance notice prior to deposit.

All rates published are per person as indicated and are based on double occupancy when only one rate is shown. Reservations will be accepted subject to availability at the time of request and will be considered confirmed only upon receipt of a minimum deposit. Child land rates are available and are valid for ages 2-12, sharing a room with two full-paying adults.

Collette does not accept liability in the case of any passenger being denied boarding by any airline carrier due to the carrier’s overbooking of a flight. All cancellation charges, fees and refunds for any tour within this brochure are in effect as of the effective date as indicated on page 75 and supersede any other previously printed policies relating to these same charges.

Golden sun, green mountains, blue waters. From the Lagoa do Canario viewpoint, outside of São Miguel, it feels like those are the only things that exist. The golden sun beaming warmly down, clouds throwing slivers of shade across the world below. The rolling green of the mountains, threaded with a winding path, beckoning you to explore. The glistening blue of the water, both in the crater lake ahead and the sea beyond. This place feels like a grand work of art, crafted with the swirl of a paintbrush and somehow brought to life.
