Explore in Color

The vast American landscape contains multitudes – red-rock canyons, massive white glaciers, and shimmering blue lakes. Not to mention verdant forests, golden plains, and lavender sunsets. From the laid-back sunshine of the West Coast to the autumnal colors of New England and the flavors of the American South, America isn't just one thing — it's many.

Explore this colorful tapestry of people, history, and traditions. Cruise past snow-capped mountains in Alaska, feel the soulful rhythms of Memphis, and feast on fresh lobster (caught by you) in New England. Wherever you go, you'll meet locals eager to share regional sights and flavors, and experience a kaleidoscope of wonders every step of the way.

Find a new state of mind

For over a hundred years, travelers like you have been joining Collette for journeys across this great land – exploring America's rich cultural heritage and natural wonders, and learning from the people they meet along the way. As you stand next to towering redwoods, hike through desert canyons, or walk along cobblestone streets, which part of America will resonate with you most? There's only one way to find out...

Let's Discover America.
